Exemplified Teachers' Standards

For
Initial Teacher Training

2012 onwards

The purpose of this booklet is to provide examples of evidence against the Teachers' Standards, matched to the developmental level of trainee teachers, which can be used by trainees to demonstrate their progress towards achieving QTS. This version incorporates Areas for Discussion to help provide a framework for mentor/trainee dialogue and trainee reflection. The Areas for Discussion are phrased as questions. These are intended to illustrate the scope of each standard and the kinds of learning conversations that might link evidence to each standard. These were developed by the London Providers' Harmonisation Group (LPHG), and are included with permission.

IMPORTANT

The bulleted examples of evidence within this document are for guidance. It is not intended that each of these exemplifications be demonstrated.

Acknowledgements

The Areas for Discussion were developed by the London Providers' Harmonisation Group (LPHG) and are included with permission.

Development of the exemplifications used within this publication was undertaken by the Sheffield Hallam University Consultative Schools Group. The schools/colleges involved were: Aston Academy, Balby Carr School, Dixons Academy, High Storrs School, Hope Valley College, Maltby School, Notre Dame School, Outwood at Adwick Academy, Siverdale School, Tupton School, The Armthorpe School, The Hayfield School, Tupton Hall School, Wickersley School, Winterhill School.

The exemplifications used within this resource were based on the 'Exemplified Standards' developed previously by Sheffield Hallam University and the Yorkshire & Humberside Partnership Development Schools' Cluster 2 (Phase 3). The partnership schools in this initial development were Handsworth Grange Community Sports College, Driffield School, Hanson School, Parkwood High School, and Ilkley Grammar School.

Personal and Professional Conduct

Standard	Scope

Trainees uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside school, by:

- treating pupils with dignity, building relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observing proper boundaries appropriate to a teacher’s professional position
- having regard for the need to safeguard pupils’ well-being, in accordance with statutory provisions
- showing tolerance of and respect for the rights of others
- not undermining fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs
- ensuring that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit pupils’ vulnerability or might lead them to break the law.

Trainees must have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school in which they teach, and maintain high standards in their own attendance and punctuality.

Trainees must have an understanding of, and always act within, the statutory frameworks which set out their professional duties and responsibilities.
